

In case of Alarm, The Picquets of each nation are to assemble at the right of their own Corps

July 9th Lord North { Lander { Groves { Whitney { St Mark Gouarin { Maffle { Elwell { Godin { and Roussell { Rechleren { Polaxfen { Venice

The General of the Foot will be at the Front of the Line to review the 2 and 3 Brigades exactly at 7 to morrow morning. The D^r M^r to mark out the most convenient ground for that purpose. A Court Martial Saturday next. Lord Hartford President

10th St Elonere { Vinck { Collyear { Whitney { Treack
and { Primrose { Amama { } { Folkes
Courtray { Morrison { Forceling { Brackhausen { Leathe

A Major Gen^l and Brigadier with 2000 foot and 800 horse of the right wing to cover the Foragers at 3 this Afternoon, at the British Guards D^r M^r Laschelles will meet and shew them their Posts. The Gen^l of the day to send at 3 this Afternoon for the Disposition, from the right wing 100 foot and 8 Serjeants who can speak French with 4 days bread this day at 12 at the British Guards when the Partisan La Caille will call for them. The Gen^l of the Foot will review the 4th and 5th Brigades on Tuesday next

11th St Paul { Withers { Newton { } { and { Sabine { Gayis { } { St Sauvein
Cassell { Raders { Pennchire { } {

To morrow the Cavalry of the right wing are to be Saddled and the pickets of the Foot ready to march.

12th St Frederick { Rantraer { Pocock { and { Evans { Granville {
Berlin { Du Bruil { Cole {

The Guards ordinary of Vimmy pont avendin^t to be relieved to morrow.