

Army whereof 80 must be Carpenters. Those of the right at the head of the Cavalry where Mons^r Lascelles will come to conduct them. The British Train will furnish them with Tools they are to take their Arms with them and 2 days bread

July 30th

Rantzau	St Etienne	Pocock	} Goh ^l Leg.
Du Troussell	Dusseldorf	Chomley
Raders		Irwin

The heavy Baggage at 3 in the Afternoon to morrow on the highway between Lilliers & Chogne 2 Batt^l & 200 horse at the same time to escort them. The commanders of corps to take care that no Wheel Carriage be in the Train except what is allowed by the Reglement to the Gen^l Officers. The Detachments in the Lille Road to be on Saturday at Labessee's where they will receive orders to join the Army to morrow night to carry as much Forrage as possible all Safeguards to be called in to morrow. The Sick to be sent at 5 to morrow to the Waggon appointed for them, and an Officer to go along with them who is to take out of the Hospital all who are fitt for Service

31st

Lord North	St Jerome	Selwin	} Brede Roberts
Burck	Breslaw	Montgomery
Laben		Polosfern

The Army marches to morrow at 6, The out posts to retire into the Camp at the Retreat All Officers to be at their Posts & Brigadiers at the Head of their Brigades and to see them encamped. Cutlers found in the Line will be plundered. Order of March from Cotte The 1st Regiment to Rebreiwe, The Army files off by the left and marches the following manner. The Cavalry of the right wing marches by the Left in 2 Columns as it is encamped the first on the right and the 2^d on their left through the plain towards the Chateau de Divion and doe pass that brook on the