

to the Regiment are to March after the Artillerys those of the right after the British and those of the left after the Holland Train, all this Night behind the Artillerys. The Regiments carried out of the line to take their post on the March The old Grand Guards and 200 horse of each wing to be the Rear Guard of all to be joined by Break of day. Genl. at 5 and march at 6. The Suttlers found in the lines to be plundered of which they are to be Advertised and the Suttlers who may stay with each Regiment according to the Regulment are to follow the March of the Artillerys

August 1.	Withers	{	St Bartholomew	{	Groves	{	Debrun
Rebreuve	Govain		&		Weilde
	Dubruil		Stoppenhagen		Leathes

no body to stir out of camp nor to send a Foraging. To grasp in Front and rear and to unload as little Baggage as possible To morrow Orders at 9 at the Dukes.

2 ^d	Rantau	{	St Jacques	{	Treat	{	Mansbach
	Primrose		Barcelona		Norton
	Laroach		Lapentiere		Congreve

The Genl at 6 and March at 7. The heavy Baggage at the Train at 5 this Afternoon to send at 4 in the Afternoon for 4th Order of March

Order of March from Rebreuve to Viller Brulin the 3^d Aug^t
The Army files off by the right and left in 8 columns after the following manner. The cavalry of the right by the right in 2 columns as it is encamped. The 1st line on the left and the 2^d on their right taking to the plain between the height of Magnicom en fonte and the Village of Cheler, continuing their March through the said plain to the camp leaving the Village of Cheler on their right and the 2 columns of the Infantry of the right