

side of the Bridge till they receive further orders. These Battalions to deliver up Tools to the Regiments that are nearest to them of their own nation. and each nation is to furnish the number of Workmen, that marched away. The Work to be continued till finished The Drums with 2 camp colours to morrow at break of day at the right of the entrenchment near Inway. A Maj. Genl. Brigad. and ten Battalions of the whole to march to the Bridge at Neufville at half an hour before day, there to stay till further Orders, from the Duke or Countilly. The Maj. Genl. to wait for Orders & the Brigad. to march the Men

August 12th

Rantrau	{	St Marc	{	Groves	{	Debrun
Sacken		and		Harrison
Du Bruil		Venice		Irwin		Congreve

800 horse and 600 foot to morrow at break of day at Walle's Dragoon to cover the Foragers, who are to assemble at the same time & place

13th

Vinck	{	St Dorothy	{	Hartford	{	Leg.
Du Troupsell		and		Ingram
Russell		Prague		Hamers

40th Battalion ready to work when called for, they to be made by the Army for the Circumvallation. 20000 Fascines each 6 foot long and 6000 picquets for the Bridge at Neufville 4000 Mallets The foot to make the Fascines and the horse to carry them to Maeshin. 20 Batts. and 40 Squadrons of the whole at one in the Morning at the Bridge at Lourche To be ready to take Arms & no body to stir out of camp

14th

Rantrau	{	St Andrew	{		{	Leg
Burk		and
Morrison		Edinburgh		Mr Fleming

The 40 Ordered last night to work to march immediately to the entrenchments where Capt Lascelles, will show them their Work.