

The second line to Forrage on the 16th escorted by the right Wing of the Cavalry of the first line and a Colonel and 600 foot. and the next day the first line to Forrage Escorted by the second after the same manner

August 18th
Rantrau } St Maximilian
Buck } and } Iron } Congreve
Meyon } Frankfurt }

500 Workmen of the right wing at Gen Vincksa<sup>rs</sup> at 6 at night
The Fascines to be carried there immediately. The paymasters to be at M Londonell's at 4 to get their Rout.

19th
Vink } St Jerome
Evans } and } St Gey's } Breda
Reiders } Breslau } Leg.

To continue to carry the Fascines to the Village of Hourdain.
'Tis expressly forbid to thresh or sell any Corn and Sutters to carry any out of the Camp. The Guards at the Bridges have orders to take it from them. The Baggage of the 20 Battalions to cover the Siege to be sent to them the J<sup>rs</sup> to give an Account of Forrage received from pangart and Gouis and to give Assignations for it They are to address themselves to the Commissary Collart who is encamped at the Rear of the Dutch Bread Waggon.

20th
Rantrau } St Charles
Lasher } and } Mr Hamers } De brun
Dutmil } Barcelona } Leg

The Lines in the Front to be perfected. for which end a Brigadier and 400 for work to morrow at break of day at Orkneys where they will find Tools. and Captain Lascelles to shew them their work They are to be relieved at Midday by the same number. The Work finishd at night, The Tools to be brought back to the same place, A list of what Tools each Regiment has