

The Camp
at Marche
innes 22<sup>d</sup>
May 1712
St Jean at Doway

Lieut. Genl Swartzell	} day	Lord Hartford	} Picquets
Majr Genl Burk		St Col. Harrison
Brig <sup>r</sup> Bonnar		Maj <sup>r</sup> Jefferies

Maj<sup>r</sup> Brigade Shook the Army
 Maj<sup>r</sup> Brigade Congreve for the British

The 40 Men of Regiment at work to be continued till further Orders and to parade at the same place, to receive their Orders from Mr. Juy the Post at Pecqum court to be taken off the, out posts to be relieved to morrow, the post at Abscon 100 Men & Officers in proportion, Marque 40, Marquet 40, Hasencourt 40

Every nation to give in to morrow what the want of Ammunition to make up 24 Rounds and that list to be signed by the General in Chief commanding that nation

A List of the General Officers and the Dates of their Commis<sup>ns</sup> to be given in to morrow

The Report of the Picquet to be made at orders as usual

The British Troops are to be on their ground to morrow at nine to be reviewed by the Duke of Ormond

The Drums at 5 this night at the British guards where Mr.
 Lascelles will come to mark them their ground for the Review when the Regiments are in Battalion the Officers are to be ranked 2 paces before the Men and the Serjeants four paces in the rear, The Field Officers to leave place between them and the Insigns for the Colours to fall; the Companies to pass four and four the odd Men in the Rear the Captain to march a pace before the Subalterns then the Serjeants after them the Drums in the Front of the Company. Brig. Groves is to do duty as Brigad<sup>r</sup>

23<sup>d</sup>
St Michael Bouchain

Lieut. Genl Withers	} day	Col <sup>o</sup> Sylvaere	} Picquet
M. Genl Primrose		St Col. Montgomery
Br. Beaupre		Majr Fleming

Mr.