

the Troops below Montai and are to march through the plain on the other side leaving the Village of Reumont and Honechy on their right to fall into the Forrage. Officers as usual must be commanded with the Forragers. No Forragers to go out with the Escorts, no body to go into the Houses and plunder them on pain of death, the provost general will be commanded to prevent these disorders

The Grand Guards by Chateau Cambresis are to advance in the height towards Reumont to cover the Forragers when they return to Camp

th 15 th August	St. G. L. North	} day	Col. Granville	} Picquet
&	M. G. Boisset		St Col. Murray
Dupeldorp	Br Durell		M. Burton

M B. Whitney the Army and Corps

A Court Martial to morrow at eight at the Dukes, Co Sylvain President. All the prisoners taken a Morading to be tryed and the Officers that took them are to attend the Court

th 16 th St. Lewis	St Gen Withers	} day	Col. Columbiere	} Picquet
&	M. G. Primrose		St Col. Chumley
Menin	Br. Morrison		M Montresor

M. B. Whitney

This day all the Foreign Troops left the Duke of Armond and Marched with Prince Eugene except four Squadrons of Wales four Squadrons of Holstein & the Regiment of Bernards.

Order of March for the Army commanded by his Grace The Duke of Armond to go from the Camp of Chateau Cambresis to Avenue le Secger to morrow the 17th July 1712

The Army is to file off by the right in two Columns the horse to March upon the left and foot in their right in the following manner.

The