

A Detachment of 200 Foot to assemble at five in the Morning behind the Artillery to march along with the Baggage

The General to beat at four in the Morning and the Army to march at five. The orders against Plunderers & Moroders to be again published at the head of every Regiment and the Provost to be sent out as usual. All Suttlers to take care their Waggon's March with those of the Regiments they belong to under Penalty of being plundered 20th at Fleurus.

val, Windsor

Lt Genl Withers

M. G. Grimrose

M. Groves

Col. Sylvaue

Lt Col. Ingram

M. Goodwin

} day

} Picquet

M. B. Groves

A Captain, Two Subs. 3 Serjeants and 13 Men of Batt. of these Regiments were in Garrison at Lille to assemble at the head of Webb's to morrow at five to go to Lille for their Baggage. It is expressly ordered by My Lord Orkney that on all Marches the Baa Horses march with their Regiments as the Commanding Officer shall Answer. The same Court Martial that sat at Chateau Cambretis to sit to morrow at 8 at the Dukes

21st Hampton
Court

Lt Genl Lord North

M G Evans

Br Sutton

Col. Columbiere

Lt Col. Smith

M. Cuninghame

} day

} Picquet

The Majors to be answerable that no man stir out of ^{the} Camp an Officer of Regiment and a Serjeant of Company to be sent out with the Men when they go for Peas and Beans who are to be answerable the Men commit no disorders, the Army marches to morrow, a Serjeant and 12 Men to be posted at the Retreat beating at Major Genl Evans's Quarters to stop all Waggon's. Each commanding Officer may have a braise at the head of his Regiment. There will be two Bread Waggon's for each Battalion to carry the Sick
they