

Those who have got no forrage to graze on this side of the Canal till forrage is delivered them, the sick doing duty in the Castle to be sent to their Regts. they that have any Prisoners in the Provosts tryed to send for them, the Musters put Off till Saturday, no body to stir out of Camp.

39
29
Amsterdam St. Gen. Ld North } Col. Columbian }
M. Gen. Evans } day Lt. Col. Swan } Regt.
Brig. Corbet }
M. B. Congreve

The Regts to be at the head of their Camps at five to morrow morning to muster, the Provost goes out every day and is to make report to the Maj. Gen. of the day of all Prisoners he takes all former orders to be obeyed, the Muster is put off till to morrow seven night.

30
Oxford St. Gen. Withers } Col. Oldfield }
M. Gen. Primerose } day Lt. Col. Foulkes } Regt.
Brig. Sutton }
M. B. Congreve

my Ld. Duke observes that when he passes by any guards the men are not in the order they ought to be, therefore is strictly orders that all officers on guard take care their men have their Hats well cockt and all their accoutrements in good order.

31
Plymouth St. Gen. Ld North } Col. Granville }
M. Gen. Evans } day Lt. Col. Gerys } Regt.
Brig. Sutton }
M. B. Leg

The paymasters go to Antwerp to morrow and are to be escorted by 100 foot and 60 horse who are to parade at Maryherke bridge at five to morrow morning, commanded by a Field Officer of Foot, the Paymasters are to be with Mr. Watkins immediately to receive instructions about making up their Accounts with Captain Cartwright to the 22^d August

all