shal ete here kyndeles. And whan bei be in hure she hath kindled, she will eat her kindles. And love bei goon to gidre as houndes saue bei hold when they be in their love they go together as not to gidre as houndes. They kyndelen oft in hounds, save they hold not together as hounds. smale busshes or in litel hegges or bei hiden in be They kindle often in small bushes or in little heth or in breres or in Corn or in vynes. And 3if hedges, or they hide in heath or in briars or in ye fynde an hare whiche hathe kyndeled þe same corn or in vines. If you find a hare which has day, and houndis hunten aftere hure, 3if ye come kindled the same day, and the hounds hunt after pider be next morowe ye shul fynde how she hath her, and if you come thither the next morrow ye remeued hure kyndeles and ybore hem ellis where shall find how she has removed her kindles, and wip hure teeth as a biche dop her whelpes. Men has borne them elsewhere with her teeth, as a bitch sle hares wib greyhoundes and with rennyng doth her whelps. Men slay hares with greyhounds, houndes by strengthe, as in Engelond, but ellis and with running hounds by strength, as in Engwhere bei slee hem, Also with smale pocketes and land, but elsewhere they slay them also with with pursuetes and with smale nettis wip hare small pockets, and with purse nets, and with small pipes and with long nettis and with smale cordes nets, with hare pipes, and with long nets, and with pat men casten where pei make here brekyng of small cords that men cast where they make their the smale twygges whan bei goon to hure pasture breaking of the small twigs when they go to their as I haue biforesaid. Trewly I trowe that a good pastures, as I have before said. But, truly, I trow hunter uold sle hem so for no good whan bei be no good hunter would slay them so for any good. in hure hete of loue 3if bei passen in eny place When they be in their heat of love and pass any ther as ony turnynges be the moost parte of hem shul folowe aftur hure as as (sic) houndes folowyn after a biche or a brach.

pre dayes fro pe tyme pat she hap kyndeled she find the male within three days from the time place where conies are the most part of them will follow after her as the hounds follow after a bitch or a brache.

¹ See Appendix: Snares.

