salted as þat of þe hert, they abide of in drie is right good if kept and salted as that of the hart. cuntre and alwaye comonly in heerd wip opere They abide oft in a dry country and always combukkes. Her sesoun durythe from he monythe of Maij into he middle of Septembre and comonly hei dwelle in hye contre ther as bene of September. And commonly they dwell in valaies or smal hylles. He is vndon as be a high country where there be valleys and small hills. He is undone as the hart.