CHAP. 29.—HOW A HUNTER SHOULD GO IN QUEST IN THE COPPICE AND THE YOUNG WOOD¹

Also a man may go in quest in coppice and among young wood, and although he has been in the morning and seen nothing, nevertheless he should not neglect to quest with his lymer when it is high day when all the deer have gone to their lairs, for peradventure the hart will sometimes have gone into the wood before the hunter came to quest for him.
