auised pat from pat tyme pat pei falle inne to that from the time they fall in to blow together, blowe togedir, pat none of hem begynne afore that none of them begin before (the) other nor oper ne ende after oper, And if it be pe frist end after (the) other. And if it be the first hart hert slayn with strength in he seson or he last he slain with strength in the season, or the last, the shergeaunt or be zemen shul goo on beire offices sergeant and the yeoman shall go on their office's bihalfe and axe peire fees, pe which I reporte behalf and ask their fees of the which I report me mo to be old statutis and custumes of be kyngges to the old statutes and customs of the King's house. hous, and pis do pe maister of pe game ouzt to And this done the Master of the Game ought to spekis to be officers bat alle be hunters soper be speak to the officers that all the hunters' suppers well ordeyned and pat pei drynk non ale, for no be well ordained, and that they drink not ale, and ping but alle wyne pat nyght for pe good and grete nothing but wine that night for the good and great labour pat pei haue had for pe lordes game and labour they have had for the Lord's game and disport and for he exploit and makyng of he disport, and for the exploit and making of the houndes, and also pat pei be more merily and hounds. And also that they may the more merrily gladly telle what ech of hem hab don of alle be and gladly tell what each of them hath done all day and which houndes have best ronne and boldliest.

the day and which hounds have best run and

¹ See Appendix: Hunt Officials.

HARE HUNTING WITH GREY HOUNDS AND RUNNING HOUNDS

The same and same and same and same after the same and same after the same after