Journal from the 18th October 1796

I got a letter this morning from my Uncle saying, all arrangements were made & that we should set off for Chatham at twelve O'clock night, which we did and arived there at seven O'clock of the 19th Wednesday in the morning. I never did I write to three poor a more miserable night I could see that and I continued acquaintance, & a Mr. I. came with us, he is to be our guide
