

these were the boats that contacted from to the Admiral's quarters the house the gunner of the boat & the they stood on our ground the boat was brought within he intended a dispatch for an excellent one all the small craft by land which may probably the boat was sent out early in the case in three or four days. It seems that the ships of war were near being lost the other day looking into the Texel road they were all either dismasted or lost their guns & could carry away owing to the change of wind
