

Leut. that went across, one of the men ^{by} ~~from~~ his Party & was charged by a Spanish ~~man~~ peter who galloped up flourishing his sword the Chasseur fell upon one knee & held out his Rifle, as if to give it up to him. The Spanish stopped to take hold of it at that inst.
Old Geager pulled the Trigger shot him thro' the breast, pulled him off his horse, mounted, rode off with his Trumpet & all his accoutrements Leut. Jey. & our Reg. ^{is furnished} ~~gave~~ no men for duty to day, nor for this Reg's duty, & received orders to be completed to 600 ^{of} Cartridges & 3 flints & ~~the~~ no man quit the Camp, ^{that} we were in momentary expectation of being called out, it certainly was the appearance of it, the 2 particular Regts being mentioned, however both day & night passed without anything ^{extraordinary} ~~particular~~ occurring 29th Saturday to day I rode down to the Bridge with Col Schlammeisen, having previously seen him send off a party of 80 men to take possession of a small bridge & ford about 3 miles up the river across which several Parties he said had come & this was immediately in our ear & until now taken no notice of, he mentioned to me that 10 Frenchmen of his Regt had deserted since our landing, but that he had taken care no more should for he had sent every 1st Man on board ~~not~~ ~~even~~ excepting Off. Servts. we found upon getting to the Bridge a Regiment had ^{been} ~~been~~ up.
