

to
Gu

c

to
it

ca

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

to

sides of his knee by an 10 D? shot luckily it had cut down a very large Coaba Nat Tree which broke its force so much so that no bone was broken, very many shot passed thro' the ranks but none touched tho' Dally will be pretty hot for his directly in the range of the shot intended for our 3 G. Dally. I stopped at Col Lindorbs Hut. & met there Col Schlammeidorf who told me he had just returned from an excursion into the Country, at the other side the Bridge that he had fallen in with a party of Coabuy & Injby posted about 100 off at the other side, the same he imagined that had taken 1 of his off & 13 men the day before (a circumstance I had not before known) that he dealt roughly by them, <sup>killed fifteen &</sup> having taken but 2 Prisoners 1 of whom was an Irishman by name Fitzpatrick, of some property in the Island, he sent him up to W. A. where he was detained a few hours, but had leave to return to his estate upon condition of his promising not to carry arms again he said he ~~had~~ been forced to do so & to serve in the Militia, he mentioned that the Off. of Lieut. was very well treated, but knew