

had been made, was very trifling, 1 of the 1stth Killed 2 of 53^d Wounded, & 1 of the 2^d Dragoons Wounded upon my return to Camp (If I may call it Camp) I found a poor Man of the 60th who had upon our left had lost his leg by a 2^d Shot. While the poor fellow was looking his dismemberment I was but too right in my concep-tion of being within Gun Shot of their Adv^d Works, The whole day both Shot & Shell, fell in the very centre of our Works Thank God without wounding a single Man of ours or indeed any other Man except that poor Man of the 60th many of the 1st passed over us & fell within an 100 Yds of New Drth which ^{is} at least half a mile in our rear. Strong Works & Co^d Parties again ^{that evening} to night. Report says we are to fling up a work to night within ~~three~~ 100 Yds of the 74th.
Saturday 22^d. When I awoke this Morn^g. I found from the ~~violence~~ ^{very heavy} dew last Night, I had caught a violent sore throat, not likely to be easily gotten rid of, at breakfast tho it appeared easier than I had imagined, I was hungry & managed to swallow my Pork & Gr^y with great good will, which entirely banished
