

x I ought not to forget skinning with Genl M. today -

Captain in the Regt: & 12 Sub ^{only} of 15 so that in fact the Regt had 1 Field Off 3 Sub: 23P. in the whole Regt: who were not either going on or coming off duty & those coming off as usual lay down fully accoutred. The duty this day was for Strong Working & Covering Parts.
The British lost no men today. Tobago Camp ^{I ought not to forget I had fresh beef today, I dined with Genl Halsehead} I wounded 2 & killed 2, wounded 21.
Friday This morn. I early rode down with Genl M. to our guns that had spent upon the gun boats & drove them off without any loss altho there were four of them & there was a heavy fire kept up by both the Tote de Land & of Genl Rabbins we passed our advanced post towards their Batt^{ies} where we left our horses, & crept on about two hundred yards past our most advanced Centinels to a rising ground, upon which was a small Bush behind this we knelt down & could distinguish even the features of the people in their works we had been there, very few minutes when we discovered the Spanish Governor at least we supposed it to be him from his Size & Equipage he was well mounted with extremely rich furniture, two best horses in his rear equally richly caparisoned a Party of Drags in his front, another in his rear, his Aid de Camp & all about him. They came out of the Citadel
