

Capt. & Brother to the Major of the Regt. I am sorry to add too an acquaintance of mine) killed killed & 13 wounded. I learnt from Genl.
M. that a flag had been sent by the enemy this morning, as the other one was on board the Adm. ^{the} "Swifort" that they hoped we should carry on the line as Englishmen & Spaniards had always been accustomed. The person who brought this flag was told that none others would be received, except they passed thro' our advanced posts, for by passing along the shore as they had hitherto done they were enabled to observe everything that passed on the beach - we had 2, 10 Cannons, & 2 Royals landed today the only Artillery we have had hitherto with us excepting some few field pieces, & 2 medium twelves, Sailors were landed with them to drag them down to the river side, & open upon the Gun boats. The duty was very severe upon the Army this day, after having been at work all day making fascines, out of our Regt. (and in the same proportion did every other Regt. feel it) we furnished 404 R. & 427. 3 Field. Off. out of 42. every
