

the bees, that bore exactly the resemblance of Firelocks that had flashed in the pan ~~the~~ were in the matter of a very thick cloud so that was not at all impossible, nor even improbable that the enemy might have raised our Reports, however I recollect just then, to have heard of Fire Flies, which they proved to be. I don't know whether I did not feel a secret satisfaction, at finding when our Reports came in at day break, that these self same flies were the means, when first they began to fly about, of their standing to their arms. the height they fly is just about that of a man, which makes it ridiculous enough. for not with us loss tho' the fire, which was all on their part of the Spaniards was very heavy but they kept a respectable distance In the Morn 9. 19th Wednesday, a Chaplain of Swinstons passed us that had lost his thigh by a cannon shot. the only loss during the night or morning, tho' the Ammunition since Day break was very heavy. A Prisoner too passed us in his way to Head 2^d. ~~then~~ he turned out to be Frenchman upon down

thin naked
H
car
W
an

gen army