

Left this poor little Detachment got within Sight of the Battery & were fired at from 24 guns, they halted & slip aside into the Wood leaving ~~these~~ them at a certain distance from each other towards the battery as Centres, just at this time I heard some one say a boat with a flag was passing us & going towards the Town, it was the case a Spanish Flag in a row boat I could only distinguish a few of the Navy with, but what interested me much more was, the boats coming affors - Our Flank Comp^{ies} first Disembarked Col Hughe & myself ^{with} the Grenadiers, Major Butler with the Lt Infy. on reaching