

pieces, while he was on board the Signal was made for sailing, at about 10 O'clock, he left us & pro-mised me faithfully to send by the first Vessel or Packet, some letters that I gave him, Our sail today was really most beautifully Picturesque, we passed such a variety of Islands, indeed so many that I could not learn the names of above half of them, more not being laid down upon the Map it was quite a party of pleasure coasting the whole way, until the Evg, when we lost sight of them all only for a short time tho', for before it was quite dark, Porto Rico was in sight, when the Signal was made this Morning I was just making
