

West Saterkline or Benne atate from the corner of the house, where they had crowded to see the Redoubt. I had a long chat with which he said was ^{crossed about} as the place of out. destination ^{to} Rio, but to say him about little attention to what he said for he began by telling me he had not been there for fourteen years, I of course thought his account must be very imperfect & I recollected that was probable I should soon be tolerably well informed upon that subject; just before I left him, his old Lady a Creole who he said had been his worser half upwards of forty years
