rather Drakes passage, by which ^{name} is better known here, from his having first discovered it; the entrance to these roads, ^{was} ~~is~~ really the most beautiful thing I ever saw, tho perhaps with so large a fleet, rather dangerous; so very many Islands to pass between, ^{& the passage so very narrow} we anchored about five or six miles from Tortosa, & a mile and half from little Bay S. Petrus in the log with a vast deal of persuasion, I prevail'd upon the Cot to allow me to go ashore with the ships boat, that was going to fish, this little ^{Bay} was the prettiest thing I almost ever saw, and altho' deep enough to allow a 7th
