

Class Satisfaction, or being at all for Old England at the same time we ~~left~~ ^{should leave at 11 o'clock} until then and Embargo was laid, this was comfortable news, in as much as it afforded an opportunity of writing. Thursday 13th this Month The Adm^l. made a signal for the Alfred, ^{74.} & Tamer, ^{Frigates} as fast sailing ships, to chase two ships that appeared off. I wrote a second packet of letters, & went with them on board the Gemini. The Capt. said he should make the 1st Post he could, & there put in our letters, he had a large bag on purpose for them, so that
