

Weymouth Transport.

Journal from the 5th ^{Satur} April at which time I went upon its Expedition which has since turned out to be against Porto Rico -

Early in the Morning of the 5th Genl.
Morshead came on board, and told us Genl. Abercromby had just left the Shore, of course we should immediately sail, we did in about a quarter of an hour ~~I must not~~ ^{to} ~~neglect to~~ mention ~~xxx~~ how very much obliged our Reg^t ought to be to Genl. Morshead, who not only ^{was} ~~has been~~ the means of our making part of this Expedition but ~~has~~ saved us from St. Lucia to which place the 30th were sent, but we inevitably should
