

A gentle purge

Take one good handfull of livers worth one good handfull of harts tunge bruse them and boyle them in a pottell of the first wort till it come to a quart then straine it and put thereto halfe an ounce of kuberb thinn sliced and drinke a draught every morning and evening when you goe to bed.

To dissolve a pearle

Put the juce of lemons in a glass and put in the pearle and let it stand till it be dissolved this is good to strenghten a weak body and to keepe them from fearfull frights

For a Felone

Sothern wood shread small and boyled in new milck with a litle wheat flowre to a poultes

For The Colicke

The powder of date stones dryed and put in to the drinke is very good for a child

To make Syrope of uilets

Take a gallon of picked uilets leaves stampe them very small and straine out the juce which will be about 6 ounces when it is strained having in a kedines a pound of very good suger boyled to a Candy hight put in your 6 ounces of Juce in to it but let it not boyle