Hee confesseth hee had passport to goe into Spaine intending to goe to the Archduke to conferre with him about those practises and because hee knew the Archduke had not money enough to pay his Army from thence hee meant to vse to Spaine to deale with the King for 600000. Crownes & to returne to Jersey, and that nothing should bee done till hee had spoken with Sr. Walter Rawleigh for the distributing of the money to those that were discontented in England — at the first beginning hee breathed out blasphemous and execrable speeches against Rawleigh calling him Villaine and Traytor, saying hee had now entred into those courses but by his persuasion and that hee would now cutt him alone, there the Attorney caused to bee read against those words that hee would now cut him alone besides hee spoke of plotts and practises of the particulars whereof hee could not accompt though Rawleigh and hee had often conference of them, and further hee said hee was afraid of Rawleigh that when hee did returne by Jersey hee would have delivered him but to money to the King and being asked of Sr. Arthure Gorges, hee said Sayinge of money they now durst trust him but Sr. Arthure Gorges they intended to vse, because they thought him a fitt man.

Let mee see Mr Attorney, this is absolutely all the Evidence that you have brought against mee, poore silly, you of the Jury, I pray you understand this that must either condemne mee or giue mee life, which must either giue mee or lend my wife and children to begg their bread about the streets, this is it that must proue mee either a notorious Traytor, or a true subiect to the King, let mee see my Answeare that I may make my Answer.

I did read and shew all the Examinacons. Sr Wm. Wade.

Att my first Examinacon at Winsor, my Lords asked mee what I knew of a surprise of the Kings person and of Cobhams practise with Arembergh, I answered — negatively, and as touching Arbella I protest before God I now heard of it, if it bee proued but mee guilty of Cobhams and Grenvills, if it bee a Treason being you will impute that to mee which you never heard of so much as the name of Arbella Stewart, but only Arbella, after being againe praied, I told my Lords, that I thought my Lord Cobham Lord Raw:
