knowe hee were discouraged and discho= noured, I knowe the King of Spaine to bee the proudest Prince in Christendome, but who hee roweth stooping to the King my sd. Sr. poore, I knowe that whereas Ele had in his Harbour some fortie saile of Shipps, hee hath now scarce six or seaven, I knowe 25. Millions hee hee had from the Indias hee hath scarce one left, I knowe him to bee so poore that Joshuite in Spaine that were wont to send see large Allowance were now faine to beggr at the Spurr doore. Nee it did reade or heard that anie Prince would disburse see much money without a sufficient re= =warde. I knowe the Kinge did not lend the States money without Mortgage, Jewell, and other Jewells for a pawne, I knowe her owne Subiects the Citizens of London would not lend her money vpon land in mortgage and saie it bee thou thought that a King that saw so ill spend money, would lett Cobham send so great a Summe for nothing? I was sent to the Lord Cobham but about matters of his profitt as ordering of his lands or paying of his servants board wages, I had

I had of his when I was arraied 400. pounds worth of Jewells for a purchase a Jewell of 300. pounds, and a Ring worth 500. pounds, if hee had had a fourth to leave remin away, hee would not have left see much to have purchased a Lease in see forme I shew him buy 300. pounds worth of bookes to send to his library at Canterbury and a Cabine= =nett of 30. pounds to bee sent sd. Attorny for drawing the Indenteures, and read in Heaue Enough and not I, whether hee intended to trouble or no, and ad= =vertising the practise with Arbella or Scott to Arremberge I cannot, his discourse with him, in what language hee spoke to him not I knowe of those things, I absolutely confesse the contrary, and acknowledge my selfe worthie of ten thousand deathes/.

Then was read Cobhams former Examinacon/.

The Lord Cobham being required to subscribe to his Examinacon there was showed to him a note under Sr.
Walter Raleighs hand, which when hee perused