of this Crayton had drawne him into (my Lords) hee could bee at no rest with himselfe nor quiet in his thoughts vntill hee had eased of that heavy) wrought out of ishue passion of his mynde in discharge of his duetie to his Prince, and his Countrie to god looking at vpon his salvacon that hee left drawne nothing but the truth, and with his owne hande hee wrote this lyne & Blow S^r you shall see whether you had not in= colligence with him but 4 dayes before you came from the Tower, and if hee bee wholly Spanish that desired a pencon of 1500^li a yeare from Spayne, that Spayne by him might have intelligence then Raleigh is a Crayton, hee pointed to this note on Apples and therein it is my Lord Cobhams hande, the contente whereof were these,
It is doubtfull whether wee shall bee proceeded with or noe, whippe now yee shall not bee tryed, then wee to gett a Pettycoate, (& it was Adams Apple) whereuppon the diuell did perswade him, fearing hee varied thus, Doe not as my Lord of Essex did, take heed of Ireweathers, this way hee confessed and made himselfe guiltie, I doubt not but this day God shall have so great a Conquest by this Crayton, and the Lorde

the same of God shalbe as much glorified as when it was said vnto Saint Paule, you know my meaninge; what though Cobham retracted yet would hee neither rest nor sleepe, vntill hee had reuiewed it againe, yf this bee not enough to proue him a Crayton the King my md. shall not liue fiue yeares to an end. And then the lie it selfe was read & I knowe thought it fitt to sett downe this to my Lordes whereon I protest on my soule & veritie nothing but truth. I owe you more neere the period of my tyme, therefore I recount the whole truth before God and his Angells. Raleigh dayes before I came from the Tower rested on Apple Adams Apple to bee throwne in at the windowe of my Lo^rdes chamber, the effect of it was to cut throat two to right the wronge I had done him in saying I should come home by force, which vnder my hande to him I have retracted his fight the which was throwne in, In the same manner I answered not at all therein hee prayed mee to write him a lie, hee but mee word that the Iudges mett at my Lo. Attorneys house, and that there were good hope the proceedings against vs should bee stayed Hee but mee at another tyme a little before, Mr Aremberges comming Raleigh word
