in you, out of eager Ambition in desiring to bee advanced to equall ymage and favour as you found beene before tyme, yf ymage you then had, you gott it not in a day nor in a yeare. for your Dori= fore nor I am sorrie to heare that a youth of that worth should become a base Spie for the Enemy, which is the basest of all others, wherein on my conscience Cobham saith true, you would have ourreached your liking, 7 to a yeare / this Dori= fore is like a Bowler without the place where it lies / your rash boiling blud gott it not grieve you though I speake a little out of zeale and love to your good, you have beene tapped by that worke of Defending most heathenish and blasphemous opinions, which I list not to repeate because Christian Eares cannot endure to heare them, nor the Authors nor Maintainers of them suffered to live in a Commonwealth / you know what more say of Herriott, you should doo well before you goe out of the world to give Satisfaction herein and not to dye with those Imputations upon you Yet not mine Dutie to advise you to seeke there is noe Eternitie in Hell, for if you think thus, you shall surely finde there as Eternity in Hell fire / In the first Parliament of my Lord Cobham, I observed his manner of speaking, I protest before the living God I am perswaded hee spoke nothing but the truth, you record unto him that hee should not in mine case confesse mine tying to a yeo= man, calling him an Example of my Lord of Essex (that noble Earle that is dead) who if hee had not beene carried away by others, hee might have lived in honor till this day) amongst us, the confessed his offence and obtained mercie of the Lord, for I am verily perswaded in my heart, hee dyed a worthie Saint of God / your Counsell not confessing mine thing, one word misconstrued and worked in this world to the tyme of Confession that woe may bee absolved at the day of Judgment, but you showed a sowrefull signe of denying God in advising a man not to confesse the truth / I commend more to my memorie why you may not send your Daughter some food to eate, because Christ & one is easily brought to Contempt whom hee both there is mee=
