Also in the gumt of all comon wealthes sundrie temizes doe fall out but in verie rare and waie that doe require an extraordinary helpe and cannot abide the vsuall trne of comon rule and dailie practise, the w[ch] is not performed but after one sort, and that not wthout some delaie of helpe and dispatche of tyme, see albeit emong wthin this realme of England the most part of causes in complaint are referred to the ordinarie peter and plompas gandlinge of comon lawe and practise it selfe, yet alwaies there haue bine some fewe matt risen wch haue bine restrayned to a quicker gaud and haue bine left to the ayde of absolute gumt and auctoritie

A Marchant robbed at sea to have his goods restored

Of this sort it is for example that if any Marchant priate or straunger be robbed of his goods at the sea and the same doe come to the handes of any wthin this realme the Marchant may by the statute 27. E: 3. cap. 13. sue to recover his goods and shalbe restored to prove the same to be his owne either by his marke Quarterplate or Cocket or by the testimonie of some of Marchants that knewe the same delivered him againe wthout other suite at the Comon lawe.

Cyst of the Starr. before 3. H. 7.

Notice is it hard to judge before whome this suite wherof that statute speaketh ought to be mounted seeinge that the
