hee had had his Iuget, hee had beene hanged manie yeeres agoe, whereunto Weston answered, that as for part of the worthily, hee said that the Attorney had soe well applyed his Argue against him, that hee did not fauor the Deade of good Conscience with him, hee would almost make him beleeue that hee were guiltie, but hee hoped their Lopps would take the bird by the body and not by the feathers, his Speech hee said might bee well understood, but the worst end of it was turned towards him, hee did but the part of a Christian to perswade Weston to discharge his Conscience and intended not to contrould the law and Iustice that had passed on him as for Testimonie of truth being borne, I know not what hee is that is disposed against mee, but it seemed hee is some one of twoe against whome I thinke I may not putt my selfe in opposition, that my de= =mande may stand against his affirmation, for his youth sayd I pray Lopps I know that hee had spent some of his time in the warre and trauell, and afterwards hee lined in Glass at Bowche, both in the time of Queene Eliz: and his Mats eight yeares, hee had forbid the base= most worthie Prince, the memorie of whome whome hee said did preache him, that hee should plead his name at the Barr whome for the mysteries of this State it pleased God to take away, whose death hee had beene as a fish out of the water, this mans speech was pulled out of his mouth by reason of his testimonie produced against him, but hee knew that not words but his cause must helpe him out of this myre, and therefore if their Lopps had determyned and thing against him for those offences hee did humble submitt himselfe to their hotte displeasure, Elsa Lo: Egerton said, if this deposition of Barringtons was not read but in derogation and aggra= vation, and not for Evidence of dam= nation against Sr John Hollis/

Mr Attorney replyed upon Sr John this Answere of his, that this Speech of Weston was ouershott, and not resolued on before his coming to the Barr to morrow with more matter thought upon and decided since his being questioned for his offence, for there was vsed a word thereof spoken in this Exami= nation, and there this is the feather you speake of and not the body, whereunto Sr John Hollis answered that they might very well stand together/.
