

lay safrant wheare you wold haue it breake and poultice hott when it is broke or lanced you may heale it with this take a spoonfull of honey and flower and make bater with faire water and boyle it with a peece of butter this will breake and heale a boyle for a solem thr out or face beat great kaisons small and put hony too them and lay to worme and change it once in twelue hours

For a Sore throat or quinsy or Swellings

Take the powder of a dogs turd huncy and peper mi xe them well together and worme them well and lay them to the bunch or swelling the whit of a dogs turde dried and made in to powder and blowne in to the throat with a quill is the surest medison for the q uinseys

Against paine in the Belly Take and drinke the water of blew uilets and it will healpe: also water of Camamile drunke twice a day at morning and at night doth the like

To Stay the Rume

Take a new brick and make him red hott against the fire and beat it to powder very fine then fill a linen bag ge with the powder and lay it to the nikk behind

To Stay a Rume that cometh to the head or teeth aproued

Lay one the defensatife plaister to the nerues of the to the side that sketh if you haue not that ledye