ead goodf tepre desire teis defendt that tepy might come to upon and ayre tepire said goodf, wtt teis defendt yielde unto tellinge tpm teat ysl either ofl tpm or any other ofl tpe Marchants teat ead goodf tepre would come but and at a tyme and upon on ayre tepire goodf m eis ptie unto tepy sholde freelie and willingly bee admitted tepreunto, wch for tpe ptent tepy seemed to take m goodf yt and bee well satisfied wtt all. But on tpe morrowe tpe said Martpelomewe Gilman came, and gave em tpankes for tpe favore tpe was content to ease sholde tpem to em and M stowte, but teat tepy sawe ead time advised otperwise by tepire Counsell, and tepy did not at any tyme after desire to see upon or ayre tpm And tpese defendtf doe saye teat tepy desired or required tpe pltf to make fine for redemption ofl eis said goodf and pay unto tpese defendtf or any ofl tpm 30li or ame other some other tpen afforesaid And tpese defendtf likewise acknowledge it to bee true teat tpe said Complaynant sued two Replevins out ofl tpe Counte ofl tpe Citie of London to replevie eis said goodf, and founde pledges (as tepy beleeve) accordinge to tpe Course in suche caselle used.

And teat tperupon teese defendtf Abraham Dawes and Richard Carmarten came as tpey rightfully themselves bound in dutie to doe, before tpe Barons ofl tpis Exchequer about tpe tyme in tpe Bill mencioned, and teat tperupon at tpe motion ofl eis Ma[ties] Attorney generall it was ordered by tpis Court to sue, effect as by tpe said Bill is alleadged, as by tepire said rules and order remayninge ofl Record in tpis Kinge[s] Court wherto teese defendtf for more certentie referre themselves may appeare. And whereas tpe said Complaynant by eis said Bill doth alleadge teat tpere is nothinge due unto eis Ma[tie] out ofl or for tpe same goodf by tpe lawe and custome ofl tpis Realme teat ead knowthe ofl, and teat ead is willinge and readie to pay whatsoever is due by lawe and custome wherebeyon tpe same shalbe loyallie demaunded to bee due, and teat by tpe lawe and custome ofl tpis Realme eis goodf ought not to bee seized and detayned from em wtout cause and teat tpere ead time nowe of reformacon exhibited into tpis Court teat tepy were seized, and teat tepy were not seized by