vnto and eyther not sufficiently answered vnto, confessed, or avoyded, traversed or denyed vs true. All w^ch^ the said defendt^s are redie to averr and prove as their Hono^r Court shall award. And humblie pray to be hence dismissed w^th^ their reasonable costs and charges in this behalf wrongfully sustayned.

Termino Paschæ anno quinto Regis Caroli

Bill fyled
Decembris 9 die

The severall Answere of Sr Robert Heath knight his Ma^tie^s Attorney generall to the Bill of Complaint of Richard Chambers of London Marchant Complaynant

London

The said Attorney savinge to himselfe or his Ma^tie^ his libertie all advantages of exception to the insufficiencie and insufficiencie of the said Bill of complaint for answere saith that he believeth that the Complaynant is an Englishman borne in the Citie of London and that about the tyme in the bill mencioned he brought into this Realme and into the Port of London diverse goods by waie of Marchandize but the quantitie thereof and of the valuacon of those goods or the value of them he knoweth not but for that reformacon himselfe to the books kept for the Kings Ma^tie^ in the said Port of London weare the doth themselves the same were entered And to the goods themselves he saith, for her that the said goods bee of the severall sortes and kindes set forth by the said Bill the same are necessaries Comodities and usefull for the subsistence of this Kingdome and of sute natures as he hath declared shall be brought into this Kingdome Worcestershire by way of marchandize and for ought the said Attorney knoweth the same were landed at lawfull wharfes and at lawfull howres and tymes as by the said Bill is set forth And he further saith, that diverse goods of the complaynants w^ch^ he themselves and those goods the rem^ainder^ intended by the Bill were by this Ma^tie^s officers of the Customes put into the Kings Customehouse or Storehouses at Customehouse Key in London and doe there yet remayne, but for the manner of the takeinge of them he referreth himself to the Answere of Abraham Dauch Richard Warmarten Roger Holloway and Bryan Rogers the other defendt^s wch are this Ma^tie^s officers servinge and attendinge in the said Port And he further saith that he doth not know what offer the Comp^t^ made to the said other defendants