tonteyned the payment of any customes or other duties to the Ma^tie^ for or in respect of the said goods, nor weat somme of money the said other Defft or any other of the Kings officers did demand or require to have returned for the Ma^tie^s use in respect thereof, but therein also referrote themselfs to the other Defft^s and to such proofes as shalbee made in that behalfe And the Defft removebrote well that after the said Comp^lts^ goods were carried into the Kings storehouse as aforesaid and so were in the Kings actuall possession the said Comp^lt^ did sue forth one or more Replevyne to have restored the same, but the Count beinge informed that the same were then in the Kings owne actuall possession, the Count did resolve and accordingly order that such Replevyne were not maintaynable in that manner as by the ordres of the Count to that purpose made to w^ch^ the said Attorney referrote themselfs it doth and may more fully appeare And the forther saith that the contriverie that there then were and are some duties payable to the Ma^tie^ for or upon the said goods logallie due and to bee payd knowne by the name of customs and Impost w^ch^ the Comp^lt^ then refused and yet doth refuse to pay to the Ma^tie^ use, but the quantitie of the same duties or weat they amount unto the said that he doth not knowe the rates thereof nor the quantitie not knowe the quantitie^s^ of the said goods But weerunto the said Comp^lt^ saith that he is readie to pay weatsoever is due by lawe and customs when there the same shalbee legallie adiudged to bee due The said Attorney generall on the Ma^ties^ behalfe saith that he also therein referrote themselfs to the Judgm^t^ of the Court when upon due proofe made on both sides in the Cause or in case either w^ch^ the Court shall thinke fit to direct the Cause shalbee tryed for the Judgm^t^ And untill the Court upon proofes to bee made in due forme of lawe and accordinge to the course of the Court shall have adiudged weat duties ought to have bine payd to the Ma^tie^ for the said goods soe imported as aforesaid and that the same bee payd accordinglie the said Attorney generall humbly conceyves that the goods for w^ch^ or in respect weerof the duties are required may inthis bee seized and kept into the Ma^tie^
