The Information of Mr Attorney Generall against Richard Chambers in the Starr-Chamber.

To the Kings most excellent Matie

Informacon

Humbly informeth yo most excellent Matt Sr Robert Heath knight yo matt Attorney Generall That wheareas this Realme of England by meanes of the Comodious Situacon and fertility of it, and through Gods great blessing unto and upon this Nacon and the gracious government of yo matt and yo most noble Progenitt and Predecessrs kings and Queenes of this Realme, hath abounded beyond other nations in the Trade of Marchandize and the marchants of this Realme are so free in their Tradings and are so farre from being oppressed by yo matie or the State in the Trade of Marchantdizing, that they now have, and of longe tyme have had all fitting Protection & Priviledge which they could reasonably desire for their incouragemt and thereby and by the blessing of God upon their endavor the marchants of this Kingdome of England and above others those of the Levant or Turkey Company doe daily grow to great wealth and estate, and yet they and all other the marchants of this Realme doe and by all the tyme of yo matie most happy Raigne and by the tymes of his Raigne