To the Right hono^ble Sr Thomas Coventry Lo: Keep^r of the great Seale of England

The humble peticon of Rich: Chambers of London merchant prisoner in the Fleete.

Sheweth That yo^r Petic^on Eyring formerly bound 3. seuerall tymes ymprisoned before any sentence and surer bonds in the Starr Chamber at 2000. and 1000. againe hath 9. weekes bene a prisoner for the same busynes in the ffleete.
That yo^r Pet^r for his rehiefe Eyrein the 16^th day of June last, in beeing tyme did deliver into the Exchequ^r Court to the Lord Chiefe Baron and the other Barons a Plea in Barre of the said ffyne w^ch a petic^on annexed w^ch Plea Hee Humbly desired might be filed, w^ch the Lord Chiefe Baron graunted, and tooke it and delivered it to m^r Lovelace, w^th order to file the same w^ch yo^r Pet^r rem^ayneth in his due Right so to stand.
And that by vertue thereof nothing ought to issue out against him, by writts or defaults or other wayes till the same bee adiudged by law.
Neverthelesse without any Legall proceeding therein A fieri facias Cap: and Extent twice since hath gone out and the last now extended on his goods in the Custome-house for the aforesaid fine and carried-away by the Officers without my Lord Chiefe Barons Order and knowledge of the Barons, Disavowing utterly the said proceedings, as being out of the due course of Lawe: Now for that yo^r Pet^r by order of the Court of Exchequ^r was to have all his goods delivered him and that by the proceedings aforesaid a great p^te of his goods is taken from him, for the aforesaid fyne, and another great part detayned for supposed debts, and the other p^te w^ch is left him nowe delivered into his possession, Hee Humbly desireth the like liberty that other prisoners in like case have, to followe his affaires for the sale of his goods and payinge his debts or taking such order w^th m^r Warden of the ffleete as is accustomed.

And Hee shall ever as in duty pray &c.

My Lord Keepers Answeare.

By the sentence of the Court the Petic^on was to make an acknowledgement as of remembr before Eyre was enlarged w^ch hath bene drawen by m^r Attorny and endorsed to the Pet^r by m^r Warden of the ffleete as I am informed, but the Pet^r refuseth in disobedience to the sentence, and therefore I may not give any direccon for his Liberty, And as for the proceedings in the Court of Exchequ^r if it should not be meet to intermedle any Complaints thereof or to meddle therewith. 1668.
