Chambers at prim̃ petit̃ Judicium quod ipse de ꝓdict̃ duabus millibꝰ libris in omnib⁹ ꝓdict̃ indenturis dictum sit Regem inde ꝓcedatur &c quoad ꝓmissa ad Exon Curiæ dimittatur /

Inter ordinat̃ de Termino Sti Michis Anno quinto Dñi Caroli in Cancellar & ꝓtho Edmond Bagshe Armand (inter alia) tentiebatur ꝓt sequitur,

London /

Thomas ats Robert Heath his Mats Attorney Generall informed this Court that the goode & Richard Chambers Marchant being seized into the kings handes at 1500li and some odd money for a fyne of 2000li sett vpon the said Mr Chambers in the Starre Chamber and a pendicon poenas awarded to sell them, the Sheriffes returne they cannot sell them for the prise they are valued at, and that they remayne still in theire hands for want of buyers And for that it hath been alledged on the behalfe of the said Mr Chambers that the said goods are of more value then they are prized at, Mr Attorney moved for the kinge that a new writt may be awarded to sell the said goods, and a certaine day appointed by the Sheriffes for selling of the said goods and that the said Mr Chambers may have notice of the day that the or any for him may come and buy the said goods, at that price they are prized at, and if they will not come or send for that purpose, that the Sheriffe may sell the goode for as much as they can gett

Inter ordinat̃ de Termino Sti Michis Anno
quinto Dñi Caroli in Cancellar & ꝓtho Edmond Bagshe Armand (inter alia) tentiebatur ꝓt
sequitur

Sabbat xxjmo Octobr 1629.

London

This Court having maturely considered of the plea put into this Court by Richard Chambers by fyne of 2000li sett on him in the Starre Chamber vpon wch plea Mr Attorney Generall hath demurred in law, hath vpon the motion of his Mats said Attorney Generall humbly praying that this Court would be pleased to deliver their opinions touching the same, this day declared in open Court their resolucon and opinions, that the said plea is a very idle frivolous and erroneous plea, both for forme matter & substance and doth overrule the same and doth declare the demurrer to be good And doth order that the shall proceede & goe to trial the said cause /

Dux