offended and of his high & natural and dangerous displeasure and ymayne vpon him by and gracious or speciall pardon, and to the end that the offended may retorne sure & readyne punishm^t as shall be fitting May it please yo^r most excellent Ma^tie to graunt vnto yo^r said Attorney yo^r Ma^ties most gracious writt of subp^a to be directed to the said Alexander Eligton and to the said other vnknowne persons upon theyr faithe discovered Comandinge them thereby at a certaine daie and under a certaine paine therein to be limitted &c

---

The Answere of Alexander Leighton vnto a Bill in the Starrchamber preferred by his Ma^ties Attorney Generall aga^t the said Defend^t

ALL advantages of exception to all and every the vncertainties and insufficiencies of the Informacon now and alwaies saved and reserved to him the Defendant The said Enimies confessithe the composinge and writinge of the booke mencioned in the Informacon But the Defend^t saithe that hee did writt and compose the said booke beyond seas out of his Ma^ties dominions onlie the draught or lyneamints excepted, And the hee did not out of anie malicious or seditious mynde as it is alledged in the Informacon, but beinge vrged in Judgem and fearinge in his hart that some greate ~~unnaturall~~ movitable and ~~unestimable~~ evill was towards the Estate except by reformacon it were prevented, vnto the booke at large specifieth The Defend^t was moved in Conscience w^th the good man in Ecclesiastes to set all the thoughts on worke how vnder correction hee might raise in a voyce for the safegard of our Syon not beinge moved thereunto