and decreed, that the said Defendt should stand and bee committed to the prison of the Tower there to remaine duringe his Mats pleasure, and shall pay a fyne of 2000 marks to his Mats use, and shall make his humble submission and acknowledgemt of his offence, both in this Court, and to his Mat before his highe Commissioners.

To the right hono^ble Thomas Lord Keeper of the greate seale of England and to the Right hono^ble the Lords and others of his Mats most hono^ble privie Councell in the Court of Starrchamber.

Right hono^ble

Yo^r Petitioner beeinge heretofore censured by yo^r Lopps in this said Court, doth in obedience to his Mats lawes in all humble submitt himselfe hereunto, and doth acknowledge yo^r Justice herein, and yet for that his verie nature and strong nature that yo^r Petitioner doth and ever must protest that until yo^r Lopps Sentence were pronounced, hee did not knowe nor could believe that hee had offended herein. Hee doth nowe humbly pray yo^r Lopps that as hee hath submitted to yo^r mildnesse soe hee may make his humble resort to yo^r favorable consideracon, and that hee same imprisonm^t past, may move yo^r to mitigate the greatnesse of his fyne, and to suspend the execucon of his Sentence.

And beeinge hee is most sensible of, and most sorrowfull for his offence towards his Soveraigne (with of all the calamities of this life hee can imagine the greatest) hee humbly prayeth yo^r Lopps to bee pleased to bee his favorable intercessors to his most excellent Mat, that hee will graciously bestowe out of his abundant goodnesse to passe by yo^r Petitioners offence, and to restore him to his former favour.

And yo^r Petitioner shall duringe his life serve his Mat (as his dutie requireth) in all faithfull and loyall obedience, and yo^r Lopps in true thankfulnesse.
