Kingdome (2) To disarme all but those that shalbee tollerated, the victor meete w^th the objection of the expence of tyme and charge, and takes that of - Vnt all this is ordered by a firmer way, viz^t.

A generall oath must bee, that his M^tie hath absolute power to make anie lawes hee please w^thout consent of Parliam^t.

The 2^d point of his discourse begins w^th a plausible and gentle usage of the people, for hee will content them too. That hee exceeds w^th the straitnes of his M^ties profit then, and. 26.

Firste a decima (as they call it in Italie) of all sub^te estates to bee payd ab yearlie rent w^ch will amount to 500000 ℔ and

Secondly to buy out all estates and leases upon his owne lands, and to rent them out w^th will amount to 200000 ℔ and

Thirdlie to take the comodities of salt into his owne hands worth 150000 ℔ and

Flowerthlie Salmon of Naiths worth 60000 ℔ and

Fifthlie a Gabilla upon woolds and transportation of Hides worth 150000 ℔

Sixthly to pay 5 ℔ Centum upon all kingdom^e, the recompence wherof shalbee the limitation of expressive lawes made, worth 50000 ℔ and

Seaventhly an imposition upon Smelt worth 100000 ℔ and

Eightlie upon fish and Buttell in market w^ch is to bee sold by waight, the recompence is the people shall not bee tozoned

Ninthlie (a thinge for good not board) an imposition upon all bargaines and downes, w^ch (they saith) is fetcht from Instruis worth 100000 ℔ and

Tenthlie that all these bee put in extention both in Scotland and Irland w^ch will amount to 200000 ℔ and

Cleaventhly, to cast out of all offices one annuall rent worth 100000 ℔ and

Twelvethly, after a matter of Tariff to make the King a good husband, his Servants must need bee put to board wages, w^ch will save 60000 ℔ and

Thirteenthly, how hee shall answer to say of the Navy but that is referred to a further expectation it will save 40000 ℔ and

Flowerteenthly (this is somewhat obscure) his M^tie shall have a benefit out of the observation of fish dayes, none to eate eggs or white