

For Ribes festers or cones or such like Take the oyle of mace and anoynt often therewith

For a new wound or felden or andicome

Take of netells shepards purse wood bine leares perrey winckle dayes the leares of each a handfull wheaten leaven as bige as an ege some kusty backen pound them together verry small put to as much honey as shall make it pretty moyst lay some to the wound dres it twice a day

To Still Docter Stephens Water

Take a gallon of gasken wine put to it of Saige rosmary kuning time lavender a verry lited hand full cubibs cardinume french galingall set well caraway seeds fenel seeds cloves mace nutmege gi nger of each a french crowne waith that is a dra me of red roses mints peletary of the wall of each a good handfull sinomone and any seeds of each 2 drams beat the spices kesanable small and brus the hearbs infuse in the wine over night in a limba ck you may draw a pint of the best of the second of the third of each a pint

To Still Aquamirabeles

Take 3 quarts of whit wine and one quart of aguiuita a pint of the juce of sulendine leares of cubibes setwed galingall grains nutmegs mace ging er cloves of each the waith of a shilling of sinamon the waith of 2 shillings a good handfull of mellild small shread infuse all thes together over night in