

w
o
e t
t
y
f
Take a pint of whit wine boyle in it a litle of each of thes hearbs Rosmary Saige woodbine leaves bramble le aves Sulandine as much whit copres as a small nut and as much burnt allame one sponesfull of honey bo yle it to halfe a pint then straine it and after wash the sore mouth with it being wormed also boyle honey with burnt allome and ginger in powder and anoynt the mouth that is sore and gums with it if this helpe not then wash it with the greene water twice a day but let none goe downe of aney of thes waters for and ordnery sore mouth that you feare not the ca nker take the a fore said hearbs and boyle them in ku ning water put in a good peece of Loch allome an d honey

And exelent medison for all diseses of the Splene

Take the leares and codes of seney the barke of and ashe tree scraped and cut maiden haire lic krish and harts tunge of the seney and ounce the kind one handfull lickrish halfe and ounce harts tunge and maiden haire each a handfull boyle all in a potell of whay to a quart first in fusing the seney one embres in whay then straine it and drin k 6 sponfulls morning and night

For the black and yelow Fandess and for the greene Sickness

Take a pound of suger finely beaten put thereto a qu arter of a pint of rose water to disolue the suger