

To Make oyle of Roses

Take a pound of roses leaues a pint or a quart of sallit oyle stampe the leaues and put them in to a glass with the oyle and set it in the sunne ten dayes then take the leaues out a gaine and put in as many fresh leaues a gaine and let them stand ten dayes more in the sunne then you may take it in and let it stand and when you will use it straine out the oyle from the leaues this oyle is good for any heat or falling or for any inflammation worne this and a noynt the place twice a day or as often as you see causes it is all so good for a greene wound

An oyntment For the Rains of the back

Take the flowrs of brome one pound hisope halfe a pound and sothernwood ~~half~~ ^{a quart of} a pound stampe them and boyle them in a quart of whit wine till the wine be all most consumed then put in a pound of hogs greace and a quarter of a pound of pint of honey and boyle it all together 2 houres then let it stand from the fire 2 dayes and then set it to the fire againe and put in one ounce of safrant let it boyle one houre and then straine it use this oyntment as you did him befor it is good to recover shrunk sinews for wounds that are festred and so for many other things

And oyntment for and Ache

Take neats foot oyle a pint a bolocks gall wormwood bayleaves sothernwood of each 2 handfulls stampe them and boyle them one houre and let them stand all night