LAND OF OZ—Jane McNeive, Topeka junior, sits in front of her special exhibit to the Kenneth Spencer Research Library. Her collection, containing nearly a dozen Baum and other "Oz" paraphernalia, won the undergraduate division of the 1978 contest. She began collecting Oz books eight years ago after a neighbor gave her 13 of the books. "The majority of my collection came to me as gifts," she said. The collection is in the Kansas Collection on the first floor of the Spencer Library.
