

1866

Journal

of my ability without pay until such time as the pecuniary condition of the University will warrant you in attaching a reasonable salary to the professorship

Very respectfully

Your Obedient Servant -

Albert Newman

The Report of above committee was adopted whereupon the following resolution was offered and adopted, ss.

Resolved that we accept the Resolution proposition of Dr Newman as made to this Accepting Board, without pay till further action by this prop. of Board

{ D P Mitchell
{ O O Thatcher

Special Order The time for the special order having arrived the Committee to whom was referred all applications and testimonials, for Professorships reported the names of several gentlemen who were applicants, with a synopsis of their several testimonials, - pending which the following Resolution was offered by Regent Holliday and adopted,

Resolved, - That the Board do now proceed to elect - Three Professors for the State University Professors, as follows, namely:

First! A Professor of Belle Lettres and Mental and Moral Philosophy, -

Second! A Professor of Languages - - - - -

Third! A Professor of Mathematics and the Natural Sciences