

1870

Dec. 7th

Annual Meeting

Record of Meetings of the Board of Regents of quired to write as well as to speak their way through every study.

2°. In addition to class-room work, in Botany and Zoology they are required to collect such plants and animals as can be found in this neighborhood, and to classify at least twenty different species, and to preserve the same in good condition for exhibition at the time of the Annual examinations.

3°. In Astronomy and Surveying and Chemistry the students are required to observe the most approved methods (whether of field or room work) and keep a neat record of the same.

Chancellor's

4°. In addition to the attention thus paid to neat, methodical and correct composition by every professor in his special department, Professor Kellogg gives systematic instruction in English Language and Literature, as well as in Rhetoric.

Annual

Report

The Educational Work of the University is done by the following Professors & Instructors, viz.:

John Frasa, President, Prof. of Mental & Moral Philosophy.

David W. Robinson, Prof. of Ancient Languages & Literature.

Frank W. Snow, Prof. of Natural Science.

Frederick W. Maduell, Prof. of Mathematics & Engineering.

E. P. Leonard, Prof. of Modern Languages & Painting.

W. O. Kellogg, Prof. of Hist. & of Eng. Lang. & Literature.

Albert Newman, Instructor in Hum. Anat. & Physiol. & Hygiene.

W. W. Saunders, Instructor in Chemistry.

J. E. Bartlett, Instructor in Vocal Music.

The Apparatus which we should make provision for obtaining, at this meeting is as follows:

An Arfin's Transit,

" " Level,

A Gambey's Sextant,

A Regis' or Chronometer,

An Artificial Horizon,

A Chilton's Universal Furnace with Sand-bath,

A Spectroscope,

An Analytical Balance for Chem. Dept.,

A large assortment of Chemicals and Chemical Apparatus,

An Entomological Cabinet,

A large assortment of Shells,